What is important to me

Being informed and up to date on all matters that affect me and my work / life.

Being the best I can be while always striving to update or improve my skills and knowledge.

Fairness and compassion to and from others.

Regular contact and interaction with the people I work with.

To know that if I am doing something wrong it will be pointed out to me, and to be able to ask for help if I need it.

To keep the service up to date and interesting working with people with the same ethics as myself and the organisation.

That my staff team feel valued and supported.

Time management, I like to be on time.

Being able to spend time with my husband, children and grandchildren

A good work / home life balance.

Recreation time, I like to swim twice a week.

What people like and admire about me

I am open and approachable.

Fair and consistent in my approach.

Have a good sense of humour.

Very supportive and respectful.

Likes to get things done.

My kindness and outlook towards other people and their wellbeing.

How best to support me

Give me time to think things through.

Listen to my opinions, they may not always be good ones but they are mine.

Be honest with me about good things I have achieved and bad. It is important to me to know if I am doing something wrong.

Give me time to do things.

I like to discuss ideas or issues with all who are involved.

Give me feedback good or bad, do not let me think you agree if you do not.

Chat with me over a cup of coffee, I prefer to talk face to face.
