How best to support me

Give me time to do things asked of me; I have a busy life and sometimes may have forgotten- gentle reminders are appreciated!

Give me as much clear information as possible, so that I know what I'm being asked.

Get on board with plans and give support where possible so that our plans succeed.

Loyalty is important I need to know that I can rely on people, that we are a team.

Honest and open, come and share your good news and if you have a problem let's have a cuppa and a chat.

Don't hide issues and problems they grow and become bigger than they need to.

Be constructive in feedback, if I have not got something right or you don't agree be honest and constructive. Explain where I have gone wrong let me learn and support me to put it right.
