

Ray Walling

One Page Profile

What is important to me

My family. Trying to spend more time with them and them coming to visit me

My job is important. Being able to achieve and learn and pass skills on to support clients at Daybreak

Keeping fit and healthy by gardening at work and home and trials bike riding on a weekend

People being able to make their own choices and being listened to

What people like and admire about me

I am conscientious and take pride in my work

Honest and trusting

Kind and caring

How best to support me

Have an understanding of what I am trying to do and achieve

Let me talk about things that are bugging me to resolve things. Discuss making changes and give me space to chill.

Appreciate what I know, keep me informed.

Be honest with me